TODAY'S SERMON

---

JESUS AND COMPASSION
LUKE 15:11-32

TALK IT OVER

READ & DISCUSS

- What surprised you most in the parable Jesus' parable of the prodigal son?
- Do you agree or disagree that the real villain in the story was the older brother?
- What are some ways you could envision Woolsey showing compassion?
- What practical application can you take from the sermon from Luke 15 and the personal testimony you heard today?

SING & PRAY

Sing "How Deep the Father's Love For Us" with your family this week.

- Pray for our partnership with the Fayette Pregnancy Resource Center, especially as they share the good news of Jesus with men and women each week.
- Pray that God would work in our community so that parents would choose life, and God would be glorified as babies who bear his image are born.
- Pray for our nation and for leaders who would walk in God's ways.
- Pray for opportunities to share the gospel with unbelievers this week and for people to repent and believe in the gospel. Ask specifically for open doors to talk with people this coming week
